LIGHTHOUSE WORKS WELCOMES BRIAN M. LEVINE TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
New Appointee Adds Deep Federal and Military Healthcare Market Expertise

ORLANDO, Fla. (October 18, 2022) – Lighthouse Works, an Orlando-based organization that provides competitive job opportunities for blind and visually impaired adults, recently added Brian M. Levine to its Board of Directors.

Levine is currently the Director of Business Development for DLH Holdings Corp., where he specifically focuses on developing growth strategies for Modeling, Simulation, and Training for the Federal Healthcare Market to improve healthcare outcomes. He brings over two decades of experience in global military and government market healthcare simulation solutions.

“By welcoming Brian to our Board, we’re expanding Lighthouse Works’ network of potential contract work,” said Kyle Johnson, President and CEO. “Brian’s business development experience combined with his connections across the state and in D.C. aligns with our plans for continued growth in equalizing job opportunities for individuals with vision impairment or blindness.”

Added Levine: “It’s an honor to serve on the board of Lighthouse Works. I look forward to leveraging my experience to help expand potential opportunities for the organization.”

Levine earned his Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Business Administration and MBA from Stetson University. He’s also a certified SCRUM Master (CSM) and Project Management Professional (PMP).
